Other Interview Programs

Cooperative/Consortia: The University of Washington School of Law (UW Law) is a member of the Northwest Consortium of Law Schools. Each year, the Consortium hosts Public Service Career Fairs in Seattle, WA, and Portland, OR on the first Friday and Saturday in February. In addition to UW Law, other schools in the Consortium are: Seattle University, Gonzaga University, University of Idaho, Lewis & Clark College, Willamette University, University of Oregon, Arizona State University, Brigham Young University, and University of Utah. Full fair details are available at <https://law.lclark.edu/nwconsortium/nw-public-service-career-fair/>. The school also participates in the following fairs: Equal Justice Works (EJW) Conference and Career Fair in Arlington, VA. (<https://www.equaljusticeworks.org/conference-and-career-fair/about/>), the Patent Law Interview Program, Chicago, IL where students with hard science or technology backgrounds are encouraged to participate (<https://www.luc.edu/law/currentstudents/careerservices/patentprogram/>) and the San Francisco IP Law Association Job Fair at Hastings College of the Law (<https://sfipla.com/sfipla-events/job-fair/>).

Diversity Interview Programs

The University of Washington School of Law (UW Law) students are invited to participate in several diversity career fairs and interview programs in addition to those coordinated by Student & Career Services, including the ABA Judicial Intern Opportunity Program, the Bay Area Diversity Career Fair, the National Black Law Students Association, Western Region (WRBLSA) Job Fair, Heartland Diversity Legal Job Fair, Hispanic National Bar Association Career Fair, Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference, National LGBT Bar Association Lavender Law Conference and Career Fair, and the Minority Corporate Counsel Association (MCCA) Legal Diversity Career Fair. Locally, the Northwest Minority Job Fair (<http://www.nwmjf.org>) is held in Seattle each August. Information for 2022 has not yet been released. The Legal Employers Advancing Diversity in Washington (LEAD-WA) interview program takes place each February. The LEAD-WA Fellowship is designed to provide summer employment opportunities to first-year law students from traditionally underrepresented groups from who attend the University of Washington, Gonzaga, and Seattle University Schools of Law. Law firms and corporations in the Seattle and Spokane areas participate in the program, which began in 1991. Contact our office at lawpath@uw.edu for more information. The Office of Student and Career Services works closely with legal employers seeking to promote individual diversity fellowship/scholarship programs, and to connect employers with interested students.

For Employers who do not interview students on-campus, will you:

send, upon request, one package containing resumes/transcripts? Yes post a notice directing students to apply directly to employer? Yes

Employers may submit student and attorney job announcements, including fellowship opportunities, at any time throughout the year. Positions can be posted electronically using our 12Twenty system, <https://law-uw.12twenty.com/hire>. Announcements will remain live until the stated deadline, or for a period of 4 weeks. Employers may also submit job announcements to the Office of Student & Career Services by email (lawpath@uw.edu). There is no cost to employers to post positions. Upon request, our office will send resumes and other application materials to employers who have requested Resume Collection. Materials will be sent electronically to the designated contact through 12Twenty or by e-mail.

Are employers permitted to prescreen? Yes

If no, explain:
